1. In extreme old age, human gets wiser and more independent. Agree or disagree with this statement from your understanding of the Aya.
2. What is meant by the word "Poetry" mentioned in Ayah 69?
3. "Alive" in spiritual language means responsive to the reality of spiritual message otherwise he is no better than who are dead. Why in your opinion, this description fits the people who knowingly reject truth?
4. In Ayah 71-73, Allah said that if we fail to see the signs of Allah, then at least we can notice Allah's creation in many examples around us. What are the examples given in these ayas.

5. On the Day of Judgment, the falsehood will serve to condemn worshippers of other than Allah not to support them. In which ayah did you learn this?
6. Study Ayah 76, do you think that we should grieve over the speech of the people who do not believe in Allah because we will be held accountable for them rejecting Islam.
7. In Ayah 78, non-believers compared the power of Allah the creator with the limited power of His creations. Do you think this is reasonable argument? Why?
8. To reply to the wrong doers who compare their creation with Allah's creation, Allah asked who can give life to dry decomposed bones. True or false?
9. Why do you think Allah have chosen plants and trees to make an amazing example of a source of energy?
10. Is it difficult to convince the non-believers that Allah creates humans from nothing? What example would you give them to support this fact? Use what you learned from this lesson.
11. Memorize the meaning of the ayah 69 in your book.
